Fire Destroys Grayling Funeral Home

Fire that evidently started from an over-heated furnace ruined the building housing the Grayling Funeral Home Friday forenoon. It is estimated the loss amounted to about $2,000, however both building and contents were covered by insurance. Heirs of the Rasmus Rasmussen Estate owned the building.

Smoke was noticed coming from the basement windows by people residing in the vicinity of the Funeral Home and an alarm quickly sounded. The fire starting in the basement where caskets and other supplies were stored, seemed to have spread rapidly throughout the ground floor, and crept in between the partitions and had such a start that the building was badly gutted. Mr. Butler, manager, was in Roscommon at the time making arrangements for the funeral of John Hyslop, whose remains were lying in the Funeral Home parlors. However, they were removed very nicely and placed in an awaiting ambulance.

Grayling Funeral Home is now located in the George A. Collens home.

Kiwanis Gives $50 Toward Band Suits

The Kiwanians enjoyed the customary Christmas festivities at their meeting Wednesday at Shoppenagons Inn. A nicely illuminated Christmas tree was loaded with toys and there was one for each member. After enjoying them, blowing all the horns, bouncing the balls and squeezing the dolls, they were deposited for delivery to our school nurse who passed them on to the children.

PRES.-ELECT APPOINTS COMMITTEES

President-Elect Charles E. Moore, of the Kiwanis club has announced the chairmen for the following standing committees: Agriculture and business—Amos Hunter. Attendance, classification and membership—Roy O. Milnes. Boys and Girls Work—Holger F. Peterson. Finance—Board of Directors. House—Roy Trudgeon. Interclub relations—Dr. C. G. Clippert.

Kiwanis education—Rev. H. W. Kuhlman. Laws and regulations—Dr. C. R. Keyport. Music—Dr. C. G. Clippert. Program, public affairs, publicity and reception—O. P. Schumann. Under-privileged children—Charles Melichar. Vocational guidance—Willard Cornell.

The newly elected officers—Chas. E. Moore, president; Farnham Matson, vice president; and Roy Trudgeon, secretary, and the above committeemen will assume their official duties January 1st.

Among the activities planned for the next year is the sponsorship by the Kiwanis club of a movement to provide uniforms for the school band. The sum of $50.00 was voted as a starter, and it is hoped that other organizations will follow suit.

Charity Ball New Years Eve

ARRANGEMENTS FOR NEW YEAR'S BALL PROCEEDING WITH ALACRITY

All committees are functioning to make the New Year's Ball for the benefit of Mercy Hospital a very lovely affair.

The decorations will be unusual, the music superb and the floor—in fine condition. The Masonic Hall is a beautiful place to hold the party and your friends will be there, so buy your tickets early.

The tickets are on sale at Dawson's and Mac & Gidley's drug store.

Peace On Earth

I heard the bells on Christmas day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet the words repeat
Of peace on earth, good will to men.

I thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom,
Had rolled along the unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good will to men.

And in despair I bowed my head:
"There is no peace on earth," I said,

"For hate is strong, and mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good will to men."

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead, nor doth he sleep;
The wrong shall fail, the right prevail,
With peace on earth, good will to men."

Till, ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime, a chant sublime,
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

School Tots Have Christmas Party

We doubt if there was ever a more happy gathering of youngsters than those taking part in "Santa's Christmas Eve" at the school gym Tuesday evening. It was under direction of Miss Tapio, Miss LaFave and Miss Anderson of the kindergarten, 1st and second grades.

Led by a choir of kiddies dressed in conventional red and white surplice and cassock, there followed groups of gnomes, dwarfs, Christmas characters, and others, who presented a most charming program of Yuletide songs and drills. It was all very fine and sometimes very amusing and the large crowd of parents and patrons had an hour of real enjoyable entertainment.

These teachers deserve much credit for the way they handled so large a group of kiddies so admirably, and for the splendid training they accomplished.

CHRISTMAS MUSICAL PROGRAM AT MICHELSON MEMORIAL CHURCH

Noel celebrations, for this community, old and young, began Sunday evening with a beautiful candlelight musical program at Michelson Memorial church under the direction of Mrs. C. G. Clippert, Mrs. Emil Giegling directing the Junior choir from the balcony of the auditorium.

This impressive musical service is presented annually and the people from here as well as from surrounding towns look forward to it with keen enthusiasm.

The processional, "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," by the Senior and Junior choir and again the recessional "Silent Night" open and close a program of which any church may well be proud. The christian spirit of the Christ Child falls upon the audience throughout the rendition and leaves it in a receptive mood.

Grayling Civic orchestra of some 20 pieces, which is a new musical feature of the community, played several fine numbers as well as accompanied the choir with some selections.

This very fine musical program, given on the first day of the Yuletide week, was conducive of a spirit of "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men."

The program follows:

Processional.
"Hark the Herald Angels Sing"—Junior and Senior Choir, Orchestra.

"Joy to the World"—Congregation.

"Beyond the Starry Skies" (Ira B. Wilson)—Junior and Senior Choir. Duet: Older Junior Choir. "Come, Savior Come" (Petrie)—Mrs. Milnes and Mrs. Jarmin. "Christmas Chimes" (Lake)—Orchestra.

"The Christmas Song" (Adam)—Senior Choir. Obligato, Mrs. Milnes. Violin obligato, Betty Parsons.

"Mary Slumber Song" (Lorenz)—Younger Junior Choir. Solo and obligato, Barbara Borchers. Offering.

"Yuletide Echoes" (Saunders)—Orchestra.

"Lead Me" (Petrie)—Senior Choir.

"Christmas Hymn"—Violin Ensemble.

"And There Were Shepherds"—Junior and Senior Choir. Solo, Nelle Welsh. Duet, Natalie Peterson and Nelle Welsh.

Recessional.
"Silent Night"—Junior and Senior Choir, Orchestra.

Annual Community Christmas Tree For Children of Crawford and Roscommon Counties Friday Afternoon, Dec. 23.

FOUR GRAYLING STUDENTS AT M. S. C.

(By Belva Trickey)
East Lansing, Dec. 19—This year four students from Crawford county are enrolled at Michigan State College. They are participating in many activities this fall term, which ends Dec. 22.

William Joseph and John Peterson, both liberal arts freshmen from Grayling, are sharing the responsibilities of student manager for the basketball team. Besides this, Mr. Peterson is a member of Alpha Phi Omega, the service fraternity, and the Newman Club, which is made up of the Catholic students on campus.

Womans Club

The Womans Club met at the home of Mrs. Esbern Olson Monday night for their Christmas meeting. The meeting was in charge of the Drama Committee who presented "Mrs. Santa Claus" for the Club's entertainment. This was a one-act play read by various members of the Club.

At this meeting the Club packed a large box of clothing to be sent to the Michigan Children's Aid in Detroit. This society has cared for some Crawford County children in the past besides the hundreds of other children and is a very worthy organization.

We think everyone has noticed and admired Grayling's city streets with their new holiday dress. The Club appreciates the efforts of the Council and the Merchants of Grayling in co-operating together to make Grayling one of the best decorated towns in the north.

Thru the generosity of Mr. W. McClanahan, a tree was planted in the courthouse yard under the direction of Mr. Norris of the McClanahan lodge. This will be a permanent Christmas tree the year around. It was thought advisable not to decorate the tree this year until it had a chance to get a little better start in its new surroundings. However, Mr. Burke and the council were on the job again and a beautiful tree now stands in the city streets. Let us all show our appreciation and our enthusiasm for a better town and allow the decorations to go unmolested this year.

Harlem Globe Trotters Here Dec. 28

Beginning a New Year policy of introducing the best times available for Grayling sports fans, the Grayling Independents will meet the Harlem Globe Trotters December 28 at the High school gymnasium.

The Globe Trotters have the best colored basketball team in the middle west and are undefeated to date. The game will be a rugged battle for the Independents who are coached this year by "Birdie" Tebbetts of the Detroit Tigers. Birdie is seeking permission to play from Tigers officials.

The Globe Trotters playing the Independents before a record crowd won handily last year.

The ease with which they fooled the opposition and the color they injected with their skill made a lasting impression on the spectators.

The Globe Trotters in twelve full years have a lifetime average of 1485 games won, 118 games lost for a percentage of .925. In 1934-'35 they lost two games of 156 played.

Led by Bunny Leavitt the World's free throw record holder and Innon Jackson, considered one of the greatest ball handlers of the game, the Globe Trotters will prove their claims of being the finest team to show in this section.

Johnny Watts, rated by Dr. Meanwell, U. of Wisconsin coach, as one of the finest performers ever to play, is the big man of the colored team. In the games to date he has an average of 16 points.

Hailed by experts the country over in the class of colored units, both in skill and entertainment, the fans of Grayling and vicinity are promised the best exhibition that money can buy.

ELECTRIC RATE COMPARISON

Recently we published a table showing comparative residential rates between Michigan Public Service Co. and those maintained by the Consumers Power Co. Following is a table of the commercial rates maintained by these same utilities Companies:

For 1,000 KWH.—Per month.
Consumers Power Co.
5c per kwh for 1st 250 kwh.	$12.50
4c per kwh for next 500 kwh.	20.00
3c per kwh for 250 kwh.	7.50
Total for 1,000 kwh.	$40.00
Michigan Public Service Co.
8c per kwh for 1st 80 kwh.	$4.80
5c per kwh for next 120 kwh.	6.00
3c per kwh for next 820 kwh.	24.60
Total for 1,000 kwh.	$35.40

Accordingly the commercial cost of 1,000 kwh is $4.60 lower for the service by the Michigan Public Service Co. than for the same service by the Consumers Power Co.

The rates for the Michigan Public Service Co. were taken from the rates as published on the back of all their electric bills. The rates for the Consumers Power Co. were provided us by the M.P.S. Co.

According to these figures, commercial service is lower by our local utility Company, but residence rate of the Consumers Power Co. is slightly lower.

MASONS INSTALL OFFICERS HOLD SOCIAL EVENING

Grayling Lodge F. & A. M. held a public installation of its newly elected officers at their meeting last week Saturday evening, which was followed by a social evening.

The new officers are as follows: Worshipful master—Charles E. Moore. Senior warden—Jesse Sales. Junior warden—Caryle Brown. Senior deacon—J. L. Martin. Junior deacon—George Gran-ger.

Secretary—Frank Sales. Treasurer—Geo. N. Olson. Tyler—Farnham Matson. Marshal—Clayton Straehly. Stewards—Clare Smith and George Hilton.

Clayton Straehly acted in the capacity of grand marshal and conducted the installation ceremonies.

Had Social Evening
The evening was spent in dancing and card playing, and it was a happy and gay crowd that was present. Everyone had a good time. The dance floor is probably the finest in this community and cannot be excelled anywhere.

During the evening hot coffee and sandwiches were served by the ladies of the Eastern Star. It is planned to hold these social affairs frequently. They are open to the general public.

Notice

I will be at the town hall for the purpose of collecting Township Taxes on Tuesdays and Saturdays, beginning December 10. CLARE MADSEN, Township Treasurer.

THURSDAY, DEC. 22, 1938

CHRISTMAS isn't just a festive occasion, a time of the year when we celebrate with feasts and the exchange of presents, a time for lavish spending. It is of too much importance to hold it so lightly. It is the anniversary of the birth of a Savior, a Savior with glad tidings of peace on earth and good will toward men. Of course, let there be rejoicing, but let's not forget the blessings that have come to us thru Christianity—Christianity that began with the birth of Christ. While we are enjoying the festivities of Christmas, let's pause long enough to reflect upon the teachings of Christ, and to rededicate our lives in the service of Christianity.

NEW CONGRESSMAN SHOWS FINE SPIRIT

When Fred Bradley of the 11th congressional district was the victor in the primary election over Joe Sturgeon, (Republican candidate) he appointed Sturgeon campaign manager for the election campaign. Bradley was elected and now he has appointed Sturgeon his secretary. Fred Bradley hails from Rogers City and is interested in the Calcutta works. Joe Sturgeon is the editor and publisher of the Gladstone Reporter. Both are the highest type of men and thruout a hard fought primary campaign, each retained his respect for the other.

With two such capable men as Bradley and Sturgeon in Washington, the eleventh district of Michigan is going to be very ably represented.

APPRECIATION

I wish to acknowledge with sincere thanks the many kindnesses of my Grayling friends during the time I was a patient at Grayling Mercy Hospital. I wish them well and trust that they may have a very Merry Christmas and a bright and prosperous New Year.

Walter Nadeau,
Pineonning, Mich.

Season's Greetings

Spoken or written, there is no more cheering greeting than the age-old Holiday Salutation—"Merry Christmas and Happy New Year".

It's a greeting of friendliness that warms the heart and brings friends closer to each other no matter how far distant they may be.

It's the thoughtful expression of regard that one man has for another—the salutation of understanding and in all lands the manifestation of kindness among friends and kindred.

It's the greeting that interprets for us the true meaning of Christmas and the New Year—the entire Holiday Season.

So, as the Holidays approach again, we want to tell you that we appreciate your confidence—your cooperation—your evident good will, which we hope we may continue to enjoy.

And it is our sincere and hearty wish that yours will be a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

We thank you for the confidence you have placed in us in the past and extend to you our good wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy Prosperous New Year.

The Bill of Rights

The 10 Original Amendments to the Constitution
In Force Dec. 15, 1791.

ARTICLE I.

Religious Establishment Prohibited. Freedom of Speech, of the Press, and Right to Freedom.

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II.

Right to Keep and Bear Arms.

A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

ARTICLE III.

No Soldier to Be Quartered in Any House, Unless, etc.

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE IV.

Right of Search and Seizure Regulated

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

Provisions Concerning Prosecution, Trial and Punishment—Private Property Not to Be Taken for Public Use Without Compensation.

No person shall be held for a capital or other infamous crime unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI.

Right to Speedy Trial, Witnesses, etc.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

ARTICLE VII.

Right of Trial by Jury

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed $20, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States than according to the rules of the common law.

ARTICLE VIII.

Excessive Bail or Fines and Cruel Punishment Prohibited.

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

ARTICLE IX.

Rule of Construction of Constitution.

The enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

ARTICLE X.

Rights of States Under Constitution.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.

Winter Arrives—Officially

Though snow has long since fallen in the northern United States, old man winter makes his official debut on December 22, staying with us until the vernal equinox on March 21. Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years AgoINTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 23, 1915

In honor of D. W. Donohue, trainmaster of the Mackinac division of the M. C. R. R., the local industrial firms gave a six o'clock dinner at the rooms of the Grayling Social club Tuesday evening. Twenty-eight men sat down at a long table, beautiful with white linen and silver, set with two vases of carnations. Mr. Donohue was presented with a beautiful pin studded with a fine large diamond with six pearls mounted in platinum. He will be placed in charge of the M. C. R. R. running between Detroit and Jackson and Detroit and Bay City, as superintendent.

The much advertised entertainment for the benefit of Grayling's new City Park, was very much of a success and also netted the management a neat sum. The entertainment was, as usual, home talent, and there was everything from the sublime to the ridiculous.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCullough will arrive in the city Friday to spend Christmas with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCullough.

Miss Johanna Hendrickson is assisting in the postoffice during the holiday rush.

Mrs. Cameron Game and daughter Joyce, left Monday for Marion, to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.

Miss Eva Cariveau arrived from Bay City Thursday to spend Christmas at her home. Edward Cariveau, is also home from Flint to spend the holidays.

Miss Elvira Rasmussen expects to leave this afternoon for Detroit for a two week's visit with her sisters Mrs. Roy Newton and Miss Edna Rasmussen, who reside in that city.

Miss Flora Borchers entertained the Grayling Thursday club Thursday evening. The members were industriously employed with sewing and crocheting.

Earl Dawson has taken the pool and billiard tables from out of the back room at the restaurant and will install dining tables for ladies.

Walter Williams returned home last Saturday afternoon after a week spent in Ann Arbor and Detroit.

Mrs. James Cameron of this city had the misfortune to slip on the icy walk and injure her hip quite severely Tuesday while calling on Frederic friends.

Miss Bernadette Cassidy and Miss Elsie Jorgenson, who are attending Ferris Institute, are expected to arrive home Friday afternoon to spend Christmas.

Ambrose Meistrup moved his family to Bay City Saturday. Mr. Meistrup has entered the employ of the Neil & Bigelow Lumber Company.

Those attending the various colleges and educational institutions are expected to spend the holidays at their several homes.

The following have already arrived: Miss Helen Bauman from Lasell Seminary, Auburndale, Mass.; Robert Roblin from M.A.C., Lansing; Stanley Insley from Notre Dame, Ind.; Louie Joseph and Harry Connine from U. of M., Ann Arbor.

The local schools closed Wednesday for the holiday vacation, and the pupils were instructed to return January 10th and report at the new school building. It is with extreme pleasure that the teachers and pupils received this notice.

Mrs. John Johnson left Monday for Clarissa, Minn., to visit her son, C. P. Johnson.

Miss Laura Simpson arrived from Larium, Mich., Upper Peninsula, the latter part of the week to spend the holidays at her home here. Miss Simpson teaches school at Larium.

The Junior Aid was pleasantly entertained Saturday evening by Miss Mildred Corwin. After the business transaction the girls engaged in a nut-guessing contest, in which Mrs. J. H. Wingard won.

DeVere Burgess has a fine new electric sign erected on the outside of his billiard parlors.

Fred Martin left for his home in Grand Rapids the forepart of the week to spend the holidays.

Miss Vera Shier is a guest of her sister, Miss Ula Shier, enroute from Ypsilanti Normal to her home in Wolverine. Miss Ula will accompany her home.

A charity card party was given at the rooms of the Grayling Social club by the ladies of the Goodfellowship club, Saturday night. It was a very pleasant affair and well attended. Mrs. Robert Reagan and Mr. Wm. Raas held high score for five hundred. After the games light refreshments were served.

Lonely North Carolina Town Marks Christmas January 5

RODANTHE, N. C., easternmost town in America, celebrates Christmas twice each year. "New" Christmas comes December 25 but just as regularly on January 5 the inhabitants of this isolated town observe "Old" Christmas, a carry-over from the days before our current calendar was generally accepted. Christmas trees must be imported, for Rodanthe has only one tree (see below), a gnarled oak. But the kids enjoy this plan, because Santa Claus visits them twice. Their parents, fishermen and coastguardsmen on an island that is little more than a shifting sand dune, participate enthusiastically in both celebrations. But around Old Christmas centers most of the tradition.

Boatswain's Mate P. A. Tillett, biggest man in the coast guard service, is Santa Claus for Rodanthe's Old Christmas party. They had to send to the mainland to get red cloth spacious enough for his suit. Each Old Christmas celebration is held in the school building where the only "furriner" is the school teacher.

To the present teacher, a girl from Virginia, Old Christmas is the world's most puzzling custom. But seasoned residents of Hatteras island don't look at it that way. To them, Old Christmas is no more unusual than the Fourth of July. On their isolated island the event has been celebrated by generation after generation, and will probably continue for generations to come.

Rodanthe children believe in "Old Buck," an ogre with hoofs and horns who comes at Old Christmas to punish the naughty boys and girls, just as St. Nicholas rewards the good youngsters. None of the islanders remember how "Old Buck" originated, but he's definitely a part of the celebration.

POTATO DEALERS—WARNING

Revocation of potato dealer's license is the next step in the program of the Department of Agriculture to enforce its grading program, according to Commissioner John B. Strange. Second offenders caught in co-operative net spread by Michigan State Police and Department of Agriculture are being asked to appear at the Lansing office to show cause why their licenses should not be revoked, according to the department head.

The action follows announcement made two weeks ago by the department of the co-operation of state police, at which time dealers were warned that second violation of the law would result in drastic action. In those instances where the same dealer has been caught in second violation, revocation of license has been adopted by the department rather than prosecution.

"This type of action," said Strange, "may seem too drastic because revocation of license means that the dealer will be forced to discontinue his business but we feel that this is necessary to protect the industry. It has been our experience that one misgrated lot of potatoes will overcome the benefits of 100 properly graded lots. Considering that the grading system is over a year old, we feel that it is time to eliminate those dealers guilty of continued violations of the law."

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Nash have moved to Alpena where the former is employed by the National Log Construction Company in timber operations.

The Avalanche office is in receipt of a quantity of winter road maps, just received from the state highway department. They are free as long as they last.

The post office will be open on Sunday from 8 until 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon, and from 8 until 9:30 o'clock Monday forenoon for the convenience of the public.

DeLauras Welch's Persian cat is still at large. If anyone sees or hears of a black Persian kitten with mouse colored breast, would they please see DeLauras or leave word at the Avalanche office.

The Health officer reports the following new cases of scarlet fever for this week: Elna May Jensen, Onalee Smith, Francis Whipple, Lawrence Meisel, Gerald Melichar.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wolfe are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, Donald Gene, born to them Monday, December 12, at Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Wolfe is the former Jean Miller.

Masses at St. Mary's church for Christmas morning (Sunday) will be at the following hours: at 6:45 o'clock and 10:30 o'clock. At 9:00 o'clock Fr. Moloney will go to Roscommon for services at St. Michael's church.

Robert LaMotte and Stanley Madsen have been doing a fine business in Christmas decorations, both in store fronts and home decorations. They are still open for orders and may be reached by calling Mrs. Stanley Stealy, phone 110.

Miss Muriel DeLaMater entertained the girls of the Just Us club Thursday evening at her home. Games were enjoyed during the evening and presents were exchanged, it being a Christmas party. The hostess served a delicious lunch.

Santa Claus made his first appearance on the main thoroughfares Monday and will be busy making the rounds the rest of the week to find how many boys and girls have been good, for at least a while back. After school he has many followers, all trying to get in their wants before the big day.

Mrs. Robert Ziebell entertained several of her friends at her home Friday afternoon, it being her birthday anniversary. The ladies spent the afternoon visiting, until the hostess served a dainty lunch. Her daughter, Mrs. John Yuill, and children of Vanderbilt came to visit her and be present at the party.

Glenn MacDonald, manager of the Bay City Times, and Mr. Millar, a Golden Gloves official of Bay City were in Grayling Wednesday evening in conference with local Golden Gloves officials. Plans for the coming tournament in Grayling will soon be announced. The interest in these events is high and a bigger and better tournament is assured this year. Definite dates have not been set.

The weather report for this morning is 11 above, that being the lowest it reached during the night. Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock the temperature was 28 degrees above. Today being the day that winter begins it would seem probable that the temperature was lower. It looks as tho we will have an "open winter" this year as predicted by one of our townsmen, one whose weather predictions never seem to go wrong.

A very lovely luncheon was given by Mrs. Oscar Hanson for her Bridge club Wednesday afternoon. A winter motif of snowballs and icicles made the centerpiece for the long table at which the luncheon was served. Mrs. Esbern Hanson, and Mrs. Roy Milnes held honor scores. Mrs. Geo. Olson was a guest of the club.

Among the many Christmas greetings coming to the Avalanche office, we are especially pleased to acknowledge one from Harold Schmidt and Bwana, his "seeing eye." The latter means much to Harold in these days of sightlessness. May this Christmas bring to Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt a lot of cheer, and the new year continued good health and comfort.

Mrs. Herbert Trudeau was hostess at a lovely birthday party Monday night at her home in honor of Mrs. Gail Clise. Bunco and Pinochle were played during the evening, with Mrs. Wm. Wythe and Chas. Fehr holding high score for Bunco and Pinochle respectively. Later in the evening the hostess served a delicious lunch to the group.

DeLauras Welch celebrated her 8th birthday on December 20th, and to make this day a happy event, her mother and grandmother invited several of De's friends in to help her celebrate. Sixteen boys and girls were treated to waffles and marshmallows roasted over a roaring bonfire and there was a peanut scramble. The children danced around the Christmas tree and sang Christmas carols, and enjoyed a piece of De's birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hummel are happy over the arrival of a son, Alfred Theodore, born to them December 11, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Sherman.

Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie E. Carroll, sister of John and Michael Loughray, pioneer residents of Roscommon, were held at that place Monday morning. Rev. Fr. James Moloney officiated at the services at St. Michael's church.

Mrs. Stanley Stealy entertained her Bridge club at a Yuletide luncheon Saturday afternoon. When scores were totaled for contract following the luncheon, Mrs. Ernest Hoesli held the high score. Mrs. Harold Cliff was a guest of the club.

An alarm of fire called the City Fire department to the home of Gail Clise Saturday night. There was no one at home and a passerby had noticed flames through the window. It is not known just how the fire started, but an overstuffed chair, end table and lamp were burned, and there was much damage done by smoke. The estimated loss is figured at about $350. The building was insured; however, there was no coverage on household furniture.

Geo. A. Collen, local distributor for the Stroh Brewing Co., Detroit, received a huge basket first of the week containing a complete Christmas dinner for a good size family. It was a small-size laundry basket, heaped to the top and then some. It contained a fine large turkey, cranberries, squash, potatoes, fruit of all kinds, a large fruit cake and everything that makes a Christmas dinner complete. Some 1,800 distributors for this firm received similar baskets.

On Dec. 5 Our Gang held their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Velma Deckrow. Seventeen members responded to roll call, and three guests, Mrs. Frank Serven, Mrs. Arthur Corwin, Mrs. Viola Taylor. Each member brought a gift and drew names at the party, each receiving a present and a sack of candy from the treasurer. Keno was enjoyed by the ladies. The penny contest was won by Julia Clise. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sarah Corwin on Dec. 29.

Wednesday was the shortest day of the year.

Health Officer Mrs. Bissonette and George Olson have made arrangements for delivery of Christmas packages to the children in homes that are in quarantine.

Mrs. Marius Hanson was hostess to her Bridge club at a lovely luncheon served on small tables, scattered through the rooms of her home, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Connine, Mrs. O. F. Schumann and Mrs. C. G. Clippert held high scores. Mrs. Chas. Moore and Mrs. Geo. Olson were guests of the club.

2 Residents Needless- ly Die From TB

Tuberculosis Christmas seals
funds raised in Crawford county return, in benefits, one hundred per cent to Crawford county residents. That was the point stressed this week as the Michigan Tuberculosis Association urged all who have not yet purchased a supply of 1938 Christmas seals to do so soon. There is still an opportunity for all to help in the thirty-second annual campaign

CHRISTMAS SEALS

to raise funds for tuberculosis fighting, it was pointed out.
"Crawford county residents have, in the past, established a record for generous response to the annual appeal for Christmas seal pennies to fight tuberculosis," declared Theodore J. Werle, executive secretary of the Association. "But generous as their contributions are, there is always an urgent need for funds which will allow the Association to increase its already extensive program against the White Plague."

Emphasizing that tuberculosis spreads, unseen, from person to person, from community to community, Mr. Werle declared that if the penny Christmas seals did nothing more than prevent a single case of tuberculosis in a year, they would be accomplishing a great work.

"Two Crawford county residents were killed last year by tuberculosis," he reported. "Each one of these deaths was a needless tragedy, for tuberculosis is a preventable disease. Still more deplorable, however, is the fact that others were unwittingly infected with the deadly tubercle bacilli. To prevent, through modern health education and case-finding, the spread of tuberculosis is the primary purpose and chief accomplishment of the tiny tuberculosis Christmas seals."
"No Christmas seal contribution is too small, or too great," Mr.
Werle declared. "Every penny, every dollar becomes an essential unit of the single fund that makes possible a great humanitarian effort—the fight to stamp out tuberculosis."

L. E. Myers has been on the sick list for the last three days. He is getting along a little better at this time.

MICHELSON MEMORIAL CHURCH

Christmas Sunday
Instead of Sunday School at 10:00 a. m. we will have a united service at 11:00 a. m. for old and young. Special music by the combined choirs will feature the service. The pastor will take for his subject "Bethlehem Calling Grayling."

You will enjoy the gifts and the dinner far more if you "come and worship." We are calling all citizens of Grayling to join with all the world in common worship.
H. W. Kuhlman, Pastor.

SCHOOL NEWS

FREDERIC SCHOOL

The Frederic Rural Agricultural School will close for Christmas vacation on Friday, Dec. 23, and will reopen after the holidays
Tuesday, January 3. The School
Christmas program will be held Friday evening, December 23 at 8 o'clock.

The members of the Senior class wish to extend their deepest sympathy to two of their members, Marion and Floyd Wadie, who lost their father so suddenly this week.

The Frederic basketball team journeyed to Coleman last Friday where the Frederic second team lost but the varsity squad defeated Coleman's varsity by the exciting score of 28 to 23.

The members of the Home Ec.
class pulled a surprise birthday party on their teacher, Miss Brooks, last Tuesday.

The Home Ec. class are making various kinds of candy this week and are going to box it for Christmas gifts.

The Senior class are examining plays to decide upon one for production. It will not be produced until in February as they intend to sponsor a carnival in January, but they feel they want to be ready to start when the time comes.

Correction

In your writeup of the auto accident which Frank Millikin and Frank Snider had Dec. 11, you stated that the State Police took the boys into town. There were no state police at the wreck while we were there, but rather the CCC ambulance took the boys to the hospital.

Let's give the CCC boys the credit. They are always ready to help in case of sickness or accident and have proven useful many times to our country people.
Wm. Millikin.

A GREAT CHRISTMAS STORY FOR YOU

"Just Another Day" is a Christmas story that everyone in the family will enjoy. It's so good that the illustrator, James Montgomery Flagg, himself, says, "It's a perfect Xmas Story." Watch for it in This Week, the colorful magazine with next Sunday's Detroit News.
